

WILL CONFER IN REFERENCE TO PARK BOUNDARY

Bishop Estate Dissatisfied As to Kilauea Park and May Appeal to Congress

Congress may be asked to amend the Kilauea National Park Bill. The Bishop Estate has protested the boundaries set in the bill and in response to its request the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon named George W. Smith, president of the organization, as a member of a conference to be held in an attempt to adjust the matter. A. F. Judd, acting for the estate, and the governor are the other members of the conference.

No appropriation for the purchase of land for the park has been made by Congress, despite that more than half of the property named in the bill belongs to the Bishop Estate. This will come before Congress later. It is believed, and the boundary dispute will then be brought to the attention of the national legislative body. It is hoped that Governor Pinkham and the Chamber of Commerce, representing the public, can come to an amicable agreement as to the boundaries before that time.

The directors resolved to pay in full the assessment of $300 due on the Carnival stock held by the organization.

The resignation of Owen Williams, agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., who leaves Friday for the Orient to take charge of its business there, was received and accepted. C. C. Graves, his successor; H. E. Vernon, general agent of the Santa Fe, and G. S. McKenzie, manager of the Love Biscuit Company, were elected to membership.

UNIQUE PROCESSION MAY BE MADE ONE KALAKAUA DAY EVENT

The "procession of antiques and horrors" of monarchy days may be revived for the celebration of Kalakaua Day, November 16. A number of kamaeas talking over the old days in Mayor Lane's office this morning agreed that the revival of the procession which used to start from Brewer & Company's yard early on the morning of the Fourth of July every year would be a fitting part of the program of the day. The mayor agreed to make the suggestion to the executive committee, selection of which he has nearly completed.

Robert W. Shingle is the only member of the committee whose name the mayor would make public. He has definitely accepted the appointment.

Graduation exercises will be held at 8 o'clock this evening at the Honolulu Mission, Fort street. Thirty boys and 13 girls, members of the high school department, will receive certificates.

NEW X-RAY EQUIPMENT IS DEMONSTRATED BY EXPERT WHO PUT IT IN

Before a large group of medical men the new X-ray machine at Queen's hospital was demonstrated this morning by William Meyer, president of the William Meyer Company of Chicago who sold the machine and who has installed it here.

In ten minutes pictures of various subjects were taken under the powerful light, developed in the dark room and shown to the spectators.

In connection with the apparatus is a transformer that "steps up" an ordinary 110-volt circuit to 150,000 volts and changes the alternating current to direct current.

The new X-ray equipment cost approximately $3500 and is one of the latest and most complete in the islands. Its work will facilitate many surgical operations and treatments.

Dr. A. N. Sinclair, superintendent of the Leahi Home in Kaimuki, is at present in the East purchasing a similar machine for his institution.

SUFFRAGE ISSUE ISN'T TAKEN UP BY REPUBLICANS

Thompson, C. G. Ballentyne, A. D. Cooper, Ed Towse, E. J. Crawford and Ed Marino.

It was decided that one committee should have general charge of assembling all the proposed platform planks and this committee was named as follows: A. D. Cooper, chairman; William Thompson, John Wise, Emil Berndt and Raymond C. Brown. The 1914 platform was then reviewed and upon this the discussion was based. It was during this discussion that the general feeling of those present came out as opposed to any plank on woman suffrage.

In its national platform, adopted in Chicago a few weeks ago, the Republican party declared in favor of woman's suffrage, but also recognized "the right of each state to settle this question for itself."

It appeared from the brief discussion yesterday that to take up the question now. They want to do some "watchful waiting" on it. So it is unlikely there will be any plank relating to it.

How Platform Is Shaping Up. Briefly stated, here are the various planks talked over, based on the planks in the 1914 platform, and the action or the expression of opinion yesterday:

Preamble—Left in charge of general committee.

Tariff—Assigned to general committee.

Home Rule and Statehood—General committee.

Harbor Improvements—To be handled by special committee to be named.

Settlement upon Queen Liliuokalani—To commend action of legislature in carrying out this plan.

City and county government—There was a long discussion on this. Some felt that as there had been a charter revision convention called, and it had acted, the platform convention now should take no steps but if there were any fight to be made on the charter, it should be made when the legislature meets and gets the convention's report. No vote was taken but there generally unfavorable criticism on the results of the charter convention. It was finally decided to appoint a special committee of five to make a report and if the committee decides a plank on the charter should be inserted, one will be drawn up. The committee was appointed—Raymond C. Brown, chairman; C. G. Ballentyne, Mayor Lane, Emil A. Berndt and Harry Murray. Later Mayor Lane said he did not care to serve and David Kalaupapa, city clerk, was named in his place.

Education—Referred to general committee.

Plank in judicial procedure—Plank decided unnecessary.

Prison reform—General committee.

Liquor law—No change in present law advocated.

Political contributions—No plank thought needed, as present legislation covers.

Regulation of foreign corporations—Recent legislation to be examined, perhaps another plank.

Surety companies—General committee. Ditto insurance companies.

Only citizen labor on federal work—Plank asking again same be authorized by federal government.

Workers' compensation—General committee. Amend if necessary.

Public health—General committee.

Water supply—No plank—local matter.

Promotion—Territorial support should be continued. General committee to draw plank.

Immigration—General committee.

Homesteading—Probably amendments asked. Referred to general committee.

Juvenile welfare, detention home and industrial schools—There will be a strong plank on this, declaring that larger appropriations should be made for the care of delinquent juveniles.

MANY STUDENTS ARE PROMOTED IN SCHOOL HERE

Principal Institutions With 386 in Eighth Grade Promote 320, or 83 Per Cent

Out of a total of 386 students enrolled in the eighth grades of the principal schools of the territory, 320 were promoted when school closed for the summer vacation last month, according to figures compiled by the department of public instruction. In figuring the number of those promoted, the department divides the schools into three classes, class A schools having more than 15 rooms, class B having between 10 and 15 rooms and class C schools having less than 10 rooms. In the following table the schools mentioned are on Oahu, with the exception of the Hilo Union school:

FIND OF BONES EXCITES PEOPLE ON WATERFRONT

and fierce was he that no one dared to oppose him, and when he walked abroad everyone ran away.

His name was Holokahiki Nui and he greatly enjoyed bathing. Every other day he would come down from his home in Nuuanu and swim in the water where Pier 12 now stands. One day, however, Holokahiki Nui disappeared and no one knew what became of him.

Several days later Hawaiians about the place where Holokahiki Nui was accustomed to take his bath saw a huge octopus and the mystery of his disappearance was solved. The word ran from island to island that the giant, Holokahiki Nui, feared by everyone, had been captured by an octopus and taken into its cave and devoured.

And so the bone may be the remains of Holokahiki Nui, the giant of Oahu. Capt. Charles J. Campbell, port steward of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, has the bone at the Inter-Island ship chandlery office on Queen street.

The T. K. K. steamer Shinyo Maru from San Francisco will arrive here Friday morning at 8 o'clock and dock at Pier 7, according to a radio received this morning at Castle & Cooke, local agency. She will sail for Japan and China, taking mail, at 5 o'clock. Mail closes at 4 p. m. and the building of a detention home. Sewer and garbage charges—To be abolished. Proposed by W. C. Achi, accepted, referred to general committee.

Taxation—Favor increase of rates so that county will receive as its share not less than 1 per cent. Proposed by Achi, referred to general committee. Sense of meeting present tax laws should be amended. Referred to special committee—Gerrit P. Wilder, chairman; A. F. Clark, Ed Towse, Chas. Arnold, Robert Horner.

Preparedness—General committee. Several other planks, unimportant, were discussed and passed up. The meeting also turned over to Walter Coombs and his special ratification committee plans for the ratification meeting at Aala Park on the night of July 18.

William Thompson, who has been mentioned as possible chairman both of the platform convention and of the territorial central committee, announced that he is not a candidate for either and it is understood that he would positively refuse the central committee chairmanship. It was decided to make no plans for the permanent officers of the convention until the arrival of delegates from the outside islands.

'PRINCESS' ASKS $16,000 FOR HER PORTION OF SITE

Has Also Discovered, She Says, She is Owner of Another Piece of Land

"Princess" Theresa Wilcox Belliveau has reduced from $100,000 to $16,000 her estimate of the value of that portion of the Irwin site to which she lays claim. Her answer to the government's petition to condemn the site for a federal building was filed in U. S. court today. In it she states her portion to be worth $16,000 and asks that this amount be allowed her at the final settlement.

The answer of Kalaiala Keawemahi, another respondent, also has been filed. The claim is that the portion of the site alleged to be her property is worth $10,000.

"Princess" Theresa told the Star-Bulletin today that she has recently discovered she is the owner of another piece of property in Honolulu. It fronts on Hotel street and is bounded on one side by Likilike street and on the other side by Punchbowl street, she says, adding that it comprises about .35 acre.

The "princess" alleges that the land in question is held by the Campbell estate, "but I am going to see Mr. Shingle," she says, "and probably the matter will be settled out of court."

According to her story the land descended to her from her father.

DEMOCRATS SEE CLOSE FIGHT IN FALL CAMPAIGN

"It will be a close fight, but Wilson will be reelected."

This summarizes the opinion of Democratic delegates just returned from the convention in St. Louis.

"That President Wilson has kept the country in peace and that particularly in the case of Mexico Americans were not called on to fight the capitalists' battles is a strong factor for the president's reelection," says Chairman M. C. Pacheco of the territorial committee. "There is, however, surprisingly little interest in the campaign. You will find one man certain Hughes will be elected and the next one cooing of Wilson's success. The tremendous prosperity of the country favors Wilson. Industrial plants of all sorts simply can't get labor enough for their work. Labor, moreover, is very independent and inclined to make excessive demands, because it is in a favorable position to do so. Why, at one plant I visited I saw men loafing in a way that would not be tolerated on any job in Hawaii and was told that it was because this plant couldn't get men enough and was so pressed with work it could not afford to discharge those it had."

The T. K. K. steamer Shinyo Maru from San Francisco will arrive here Friday morning at 8 o'clock and dock at Pier 7, according to a radio received this morning at Castle & Cooke, local agency. She will sail for Japan and China, taking mail, at 5 o'clock. Mail closes at 4 p. m.
